

Appointment of Interim CEO for Breast Cancer Haven

Diana Dyer Bartlett, Chairman of the Trustees of Breast Cancer Haven, announced today that Rowena Bartlett has been appointed as Interim CEO of the charity.

With a background in the Arts and the Charitable Sector, Rowena was jointly responsible for setting up Breast Cancer Haven and for the opening of the Haven in London. She was the first CEO of Breast Cancer Haven and left in 2002 to devote more time to her four children. Since then, she has been involved with the development of the charity as a Trustee.

Diana said: “We are very fortunate to be able to call on Rowena’s experience of running the Haven in the past”.
