LOCALS STRUTTING THEIR STUFF TO RAISE MONEY FOR CHARITY

Two local kindhearted businesses have joined forces to showcase an underwear, swimwear and nightwear show in order to raise money for a breast cancer charity.

Bar Fusion at Xscape is hosting the show on Wednesday 15 July at 8pm. The show will feature local women who will be modeling and voluntarily strutting their stuff in collections from 'The Lingerie Corner' boutique in Ackworth. The event is strictly women only allowed.

A percentage of the bar takings from the evening will be donated to 'Breast Cancer Haven in Yorkshire', Leeds. Breast Cancer Haven provides free support, information and complementary therapies to meet the physical and emotional needs of anyone affected by breast cancer before, during or after medical treatment

Tom Robertshaw, fundraiser at Breast Cancer Haven said:

"We are extremely grateful that Bar Fusion and The Lingerie Corner are holding such a fun event, everyone involved has dedicated time and energy to the show out of the goodness of their hearts. We'd like to say a big thank you and we hope the show is a huge success."

Galaxy FM DJ's will be attending to lend their support to the event, and the women will be in for a little surprise at the end of the show!

During the course of the evening there will be a prize draw with champagne, The Lingerie Corner voucher and a Poppies Beauty Salon voucher all up for grabs.

Dee Patel, owner of Bar Fusion, said:

"I urge all the ladies locally to come down to Bar Fusion to support this show, it's for a very good cause. The models are all local people who have been fantastic in giving up their time to rehearse and model. Raising money is our main goal and we hope to make The Haven proud of people from Pontefract and Castleford"

The Lingerie Corner specializes in fitting a beautiful array of underwear from designers including Ted Baker, Charnos and Lepel. The boutique can also provide advice for women who have undergone breast surgery and a range of mastectomy bras is available.
